Gospel Connection: One of the year’s most acclaimed films is director Greta Gerwig’s adaptation of Louisa May Alcott’s novel Little Women. It’s the story of the four colorful and high-spirited March sisters, who live in Concord, Massachusetts, during and after the Civil War. While their father is away serving as a volunteer chaplain with Union forces, mother Marmee struggles to make ends meet — but Marmee always gives whatever the family has to anyone in need and instills such compassion and generosity in her daughters.

It’s not always harmonious in the March household. The four sisters argue and fight as all siblings do. There is a particularly ugly confrontation between Amy and Jo. Jo struggles with her anger at her sister. Her mother Marmee confides to her second daughter: “I am angry nearly every day of my life. I’ve learned to check the hasty words that rise to my lips, and when I feel that they mean to break out against my will, I just go away for a minute, and give myself a little shake for being so weak and wicked.” The moment portrays a mother’s struggle with her righteous anger and society’s demands that such anger be suppressed.

The glory of Greta Gerwig’s adaptation is the film’s portrayal of the March sisters as fully fleshed-out, imperfect young women. They play and argue, they fight and forgive. The bond of love among the four is neither sentimental nor cynical. In times of tragedy and crisis, as perspectives and dreams change, as each makes the difficult passage from childhood to womanhood, the March sisters remain inseparable. Their hands and hearts are always open to each other, no matter how angry they may be with one another in a given moment. We can readily see our own families — and ourselves — in these four daughters and sisters — and women.

The story of the March sisters models Jesus’ teachings on love in today’s Gospel. Jesus readily acknowledges that love — love that is and of God — is not easy. It’s demanding, often unreasonable and unfair. It means putting ourselves — and our disappointments and expectations — aside for the sake of the beloved. What is often most challenging about today’s Gospel is not loving our “enemies” but loving our annoying sister or bratty brother. It’s easy to “love” some nameless, demographic group we have little or nothing to do with; what’s hard is to “love” the people we live with and work with and go to school with. “To love our enemies” is not just to declare a cease-fire but to create and maintain an environment where reconciliation is always possible, where acceptance and welcome are assured — even within our families and households.

Religious Education: The next Class will be on Wednesday, February 26th at 7:00 pm in the Parish House. We will then move to Church for the Ash Wednesday Mass. The Sweetheart Dinner was a success! Thank you to the parents!! This dinner cannot be done without your help and it is GREATLY APPRECIATED!!

Chaplets: We will, once again, have Chaplets available during Lent. These Chaplets will have a suggested donation of $5 each and will benefit the Religious Education program of St. Nicholas. Chaplets will be available at the Ash Wednesday Mass (February 26th). **The year, Catholic United Financial will have this event as a MATCHING GRANT! That means that Catholic United Financial will MATCH your donation and all the funds raised will go toward our Religious Education program!

CPR/AED Training: There will be a non-certified CPR/AED usage training. The training will be held in Mike Lutgen’s lower level across from the church ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27TH. The training will start promptly at 7:00 pm. All are welcome! Please call Doug Caskey at 597-2854 so that the proper number of manikins will be available. The training should be done by 8:30 pm.

Bishop’s Annual Appeal: “Transformed by faith and sent in service to all.” The appeal supports ministries that benefit you, your family and your greater parish community. Please make a gift today! You can make a gift with envelopes that are provided at the back of the Church, or mail in the envelope that many of you received in the mail last week. Each dollar raised goes directly to the ministries that support our Catholic faith and is not used for any other purpose. The goal for our parish will be $5,958 with the goal for the Diocese set at $1,300,000.
