Nicktobfest: Update Saturday, Sept 30, 2023

Set up: 185.00 for tent rental; Bathroom/Handwashing station: 380.00

Tickets/Marketing: Trish and Brenda will both be the contacts for tickets. Please talk with them to get your supply to sell.

Set to start selling weekend of Aug 12-13. Please volunteer if you can help sell at masses.

The COVID disclaimer will not be added to the back side of tickets this year.

Ticket pricing: will stay at 40.00 for tickets: (2) beer tickets, (1) 10.00 food voucher, mug

Additional beer tickets will be 5.00 each.

Karen: Will get the promotional poster out there: Save the Date

Mass: Mary was not present to add if there will be a mass at 4:00 as in other years.

Entertainment: Band currently set up to play from 6:00-9:00; Kelly will check with them if they want to play from 5:30-9:30 for additional fee. Judi has all the decks of cards already.

Beer/Drinks: Brinky's are not able to get us pricing for the Octoberfest beer kegs yet, but guessing they will only go up about $5.00 per keg. Drinks in a can should cost the committee 2.80-2.90 per can.

Food: The Hansen's and Foehrenbachers were present to discuss the Baseball Association doing the food as a fundraiser for the Baseball Assoc. On the menu: (subject to change): Brat/Bun/Sauerkraut, Bean Casserole, Pickle = 10.00 meal; Will also sell pulled pork sandwich, nachos, snacks, candy bars, pop. They are going to explore other items. Water will be offered FREE. Guests can also turn in their beer ticket for a soda and the baseball team will get reimbursed for sell price of soda.

Food will be ready to serve by 5:00 and serve until 9:00 pm. Workers do not have to buy an admission ticket and only those who are 21 and older are allowed to work. If workers would like to stay after serving, they will have to purchase a mug if they want to purchase beer tickets.
